

BULLETIN

PAID WORK OPPORTUNITIES - TORONTO'S MUNICIPAL ELECTION

COTAPSA is encouraging members to consider working in paid positions during Toronto's municipal elections.

On October 24, Toronto Elections will deliver Canada's largest municipal election with critical support from 15,000 election workers. COTAPSA members are a reliable workforce skilled in the highest standards of customer service and other competencies to take on thousands of important election positions.

If you are interested in an election position, members can visit the Toronto Elections intranet page to find a role that leverages your unique talents and helps you boost skills in a variety of competencies. There are a variety of positions, including Supervisors and Managing Deputy Returning Officers which are suitable for staff with supervisory experience.

Your involvement in the election will help ensure a successful election and we encourage you to consider participating in this important civic process.